II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

10 million because this has been ongoing and has affected my family in several ways.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

1. On or around Nov 1223 my son teacher (Ms. Reider et al) made a false Report on me in regards to my son causing me to have a DSS case. They did their Investigation and closed the case. 2. Afterwards I began to be harass by his teachers, office staff and they began asking for paperwork and things they didn't need. I had to call the School Board because the principal at the time refuse to have a meeting about what was going on and the finally a lady Name Sunja called a meeting about the issues -

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

The total amount I'm asking for is 10 million, due to the fact that this went on for a whole school period. The principle at the time didn't care enough to speak to me and resolved the issue before it got worse. The fact that I had several mental break downs due to this situation as well as my daughter and my son being innocent and child should walk around with the faces on them.
